Dear Mr Mitchener,

It is my pleasure to inform you that your manuscript, "Detect, Understand, Act: A Neuro-Symbolic Hierarchical Reinforcement Learning Framework" has been accepted for publication in Machine Learning.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

Very soon, you will be contacted directly by the production team via email who will be overseeing the remainder of the publication process -- from typesetting to final publication.

As part of the production process, you will be sent proofs of the typeset version.
Please review the proofs thoroughly to ensure accuracy and return them promptly. Note: corrections to proofs are for identifying typesetting errors only -- changes to content, title and authorship are not permitted and may be subject to re-submission for additional review.

Your paper will become available for MLJ online subscribers as soon as your corrections are returned. Thus, it is very important to submit your corrected proof promptly to have your work available online as soon as possible.

To be alerted when your paper officially appears published in a volume and issue, please sign up for the MLJ Table of Contents alerts at www.springer.com/10994.

Congratulations on the acceptance of your paper, and thanks for choosing MLj as the publication venue for your work.

Best regards,
Dragos Margineantu, Ph.D.

Please note that this journal is a Transformative Journal (TJ). Authors may publish their research with us through the traditional subscription access route or make their paper immediately open access through payment of an article-processing charge (APC). Authors will not be required to make a final decision about access to their article until it has been accepted.

Authors may need to take specific actions to achieve compliance with funder and institutional open access mandates. If your research is supported by a funder that requires immediate open access (e.g. according to Plan S principles) then you should select the gold OA route, and we will direct you to the compliant route where possible. For authors selecting the subscription publication route our standard licensing terms will need to be accepted, including our self-archiving policies. Those standard licensing terms will supersede any other terms that the author or any third party may assert apply to any version of the manuscript.
